

Forecasting the Greater Washington Economy: 2004

Parking is Available in the Parking Garage for $1.50/ hour.

Upon Arriving in the Parking Garage

After parking in the garage, find your way to the third floor entrance. A set of stairs or elevator are available. At the third floor you will see a sidewalk that leads to the end of the garage toward the main “quad” of Campus. As you walk toward the “quad” you will see an information kiosk on your left. If you are facing with the kiosk on your left side you will see a statue of George Mason in front of you. You will be walking past that statue to enter the building just beyond and to the right. The name of the building is the George W. Johnson Center. Once you have entered the building you will walk toward the center of the building looking for the Main Information Center. To the left and right of this desk are elevators taking you down to the ground floor. Stairs are available just beyond the desk. The presentation will take place in Dewberry Hall and a Continental Breakfast will be served. Signs will be posted around Campus and in the Johnson Center to help you find your way.
